Bursting the Bubble

2000

Title

"There's never any trouble here in bubble land."
Bursting into the freshmen scene we feared being popped before we made it to our first class. Homework assignments, sports tryouts, and new faces threatened our security. No sooner did we complete that fragile year, we found ourselves floating into tenth grade. Tossed about by any prevailing wind, we eventually settled into our comfort zones. Catching our breath to go where no bubble had gone before-we got our licenses -freedom to soar in Junior year! Pinholes were put in our bubbles by SATs and the never-ending college search.Our fragile bubbles somewhat intact, we landed together in Senior year. Our imaginations pushing us into the great Orb of life beyond Westbubble. The transparent, delicate spheres we live in will now burst as we persue our goals. It's time for soaring!

Absolute Seniority

The first day of school was an all-around success for the class of 2000. We conducted ourselves with poise and maturity, and got our point across. It's our turn! The morning began at many student's home away from home: The Lower Lot. Together we decorated our cars and mastered the art of marking '00-on banners, of course. After a quick interruption of the usual morning rotary traffic it was time for school. The big entrance was delayed for a few seconds by "the balloon police," but our presence was welcomed (and a bit over anticipated) by the faculty. As we gathered at the senior balconies we united. Our chants, echoing throughout the lobby carried on the senior tradition, and instilled fear and reverence in every freshman heart.

August 29th, WHS seniors met at Meg Scannell's to do tye dye. We decorated our with burning hot colored and hung them on .

September 1st, we all awoke to an a t to meet in the lower lot. Almost everyone had picked up and instantly went from to . and were distributed to the seniors. At 7:10, we moved out. Around the rotary in our we alerted the town of our presence by and honking. Arriving at , we were closely observed by the and had to let go of the balloons before we were allowed to go through the doors. We into the lobby to begin our final year!

Long before the rising of the sun the ears of twenty-two sleepy yearbook memebers rang with the familiar buzz of the alarm clock. They gathered together just as the sun was over taking the darkness of night. With bubbles in hand they filed into the Munro home bearing gifts of syrup, orange juice, butter, fruit, and hot chocolate. A luscious aroma of pancakes and bacon filled the house, and" how are you's " were exchanged. As stacks of pancakes disappeared into the bellies of the hungery publishing crew, sounds of laughter quickly replaced the yawns. Shortly after the final bite bubbles filled the backyard as wands caught the delicate breath of the early risers. The staff, with stomaches fully satisfied, stood astounded at the hundreds of perfect glittering spheres in that mystical world of bubbles... Then re-entered reality and made it to first period just before the bell.

It is usually hard to get out of bed on an early school-day morning. But on April 9th, 1999, I sprang out of bed like a piping hot pop-tart out of a toaster. This was no ordinary Friday - it was Game Day. After months of planning, worrying, and late night break-downs, Prom night was upon us. Every detail had been beaten to death by the cautious planning of our dedicated prom committee. Yet, despite all of this, I was certain that the prom would be a disaster.

Thank God I was wrong! The set up went smoothly, the flowers arrived on time, and the DJ was not a polka playing fiend from the greater Mid-West. Dressed to the nines, I walked up the red velvet staircase in awe. Everything was perfect, and everyone looked fabulous. It had been a lot of work, but the look of excitement on everyone's face was proof to me that all our work and effort was worth it.

Pre and Post Prom

As the yearbook is a tool to remeber high school, I want to remind our future selves of how the Prom unfolded. The week leading to it was full of tense excitment. Conversations of dresses, limos, and pre and post plans consumed our minds. That friday evening, after much primping and preparation, we finally arrived at Mechanics Hall.

That night, I realized why I had voted for our student officers. It wasn't a moment of temporary insanity after all - the whole hall looked wonderful. The flowers were beautiful, the tables were carefully set, and the atmosphere welcomed us all. I don't think that there was one person in that room that had a bad time. We were all too busy dancing to make an effort to be perturbed.

After, like good boys and girls, we scamperd home to munch on an assortment of snacks, and play twister. It was late into the night when we adorned our nightgowns and slipped off into slumberland. That morning, many of us finished off the experience by going to Boston, taking the ACTs, or heading home to get more sleep.

In a nutshell, the Prom was a celebration of being young. May we always remember this special night and how we enjoyed it together.

10 Fun Days!

On April 16, 1999, 40 WHS students along with 5 chaperones departed from Logan airport. We traveled 6 long hours and finally reached our destination: London, England. Our 10 day stay consisted of traveling non-stop through England, France, Switzerland, and Germany. In Paris we saw such sites as the Louve, Notre Dame and the famous Eiffel Tower. We saw Picadilly Circus and Big Ben, in London, England. In Switzerland we viewed the mighty Mount Pilatus, in Switzerland. Finally we drove through the Black Forest, and ended our trip in Heidelberg, Germany. Nobody will forget James, our tour guide, and the fantastic memories that will last a life time!!

Viva Espana!!

Espana~ April 16th '99. A big luxurious bus waited outside the school ready to cart us off to Logan airport. The ride seemed to take forever and the bus air was stale. Nevertheless, morale stayed high and we managed to make it to the gate. Though British Airlines treated us well we were ready to drop after 10 hours in the air. The next ten days were a blur of churches, historical monuments, and ancient castles. Highlights included: wonderful foreign cuisine, including greasy spanish french fries, frequent excursions to McDonald's, long bus tours (naps) only to be woken by the incessant "Guuuuyyzzzz" of our beloved tour guide Victor. Our experience in southern Spain included the buying of swords, bull fights, Nate Stewart's tatoo, various bellybutton piercings, and partys on El Costa Del Sol. The hydrofoil brought yet another nap and a quick ride across the Mediteranean Sea to Morocco. There we rode camels and saw Meg Counihan willingly wrap a poisonous snake around her neck. All in all it was an experience we'll never forget!!

" Twas the week before vacation and all through the school..." WHS seniors followed orders from their elves and became super heros, animals, movie characters, and inanimate objects. By the arrival of vacation the whole school was bursting with holiday spirit. This year we witnessed creative costumes such as fairies, "Roller Derby Girl,"and Paula Abdul. Surely Secret Santa '99 is one that will go down in history as the best WHS has ever seen.

To the members of the Class of Two Thousand:

Thank You. You have enabled me to enjoy my high school career. Since the first day of Kindergarden we have been the masters of our own destinies. We have had to go through the good, the bad, and the ugly, but we have gone through it together.

I am proud that I am a part of a class full of all-star athletes, all-state musicians, Harvard-bound scholars, and amazing artists. I am surrounded by some of the most fun-loving, compassionate, independent, and driven people I have, and will ever meet. We may have entered as a class divided, but we leave this year as a class united.

When we first began school, we were told how special we were to be able to ring in the new millenium. However, I feel that the new millenium was lucky to have us ring it in.

Thank you for all the memories!

Bottom Left: It's all sparkles for Jacqui Guimond and Josh Pauquette.

The "Winter Dream" turned out to be a complete success. With careful planning and much help, the lobby was completely transformed. Under the makeshift night sky and two gorgeous disco balls, the dancing began. Later on, the dance was showered with balloons and confetti adding to the bliss of the night. Everyone's effort paid off with incredible reviews of the fun that was had by all.

Walking 101

Freshmen (fresh'man) n., pl. 1 a student of the first year of college or the ninth year of public schooling. 2. any of the wide variety of mammalian animals, characterized by a dorsal backpack-like appendage, high voices in both sexes, and a tendency to move in large herds, obstructing any and all occupied passageways.

Gosh darn it, when did we start raising livestock as WHS? At the Lobby-O, we're sick of having to wear Little Bo Peep costumes just to get through the hallways. And, hey, if you can find a better way to get these herds of frosh-sheep out of your way, please, send us a letter.

The problem is simple. There is a food chain here at WHS. Seniors are at the top, freshman at the bottom. But this year, it seems that this food chain is being overrun by the class of 2003. Hey, when the class of 2000 were freshman, it was nothing but R-E-S-P-E-C-T for the seniors.

So where's our respect? We get freshmen cutting in line, freshman taking up prime balcony spots, not to mention the migraine-inducing chirping. We can put up with all of this, but please, won't you little Smurfs let us get to class on time?

Faculty

Congratulations to the Class of 2000!
One of the joys of my position is getting to know many wonderful young students. It has been a pleasure to see you grow from timid freshmen to self-confident seniors. I trust you know that the entire faculty is proud of your past accomplishments and looks forward to hearing about your future achievements.
Best wishes for a healthy, happy, and successful future.

-Maureen H. Zolubos, Ph.D

Sincere congratulations to the members of the class of 2000. You have achieved a milestone in your educational careers;you deserve praise and encouragement as you continue on your paths as life-long learners.

-Mr. David Fredette

There are many roads in life that can lead you to your destination. It is our sincere hope that your experiences at Westborough High School help you make the right choices. Best of Luck!

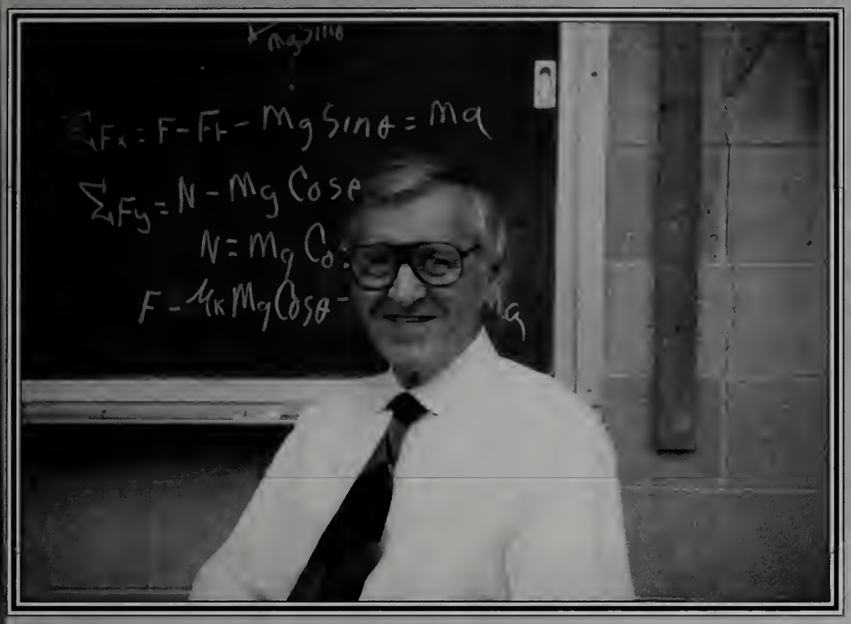
Moving on to Different Things

Mr. Gravel spent nearly 40 years as a teacher, most of them as our department head. On behalf of the members of the department, I'd like to thank him for his help and wish him and his wife a long and happy retirement. His mark on W.H.S and its students will last a long time. -Mr. Pelletier

All Westboro High needs to do to be a superior school is to consider the legacy that Charlotte Spinney has left us since her retirement- A culture of hardwork, knowledge, dedication, honesty, innovation, and only the highest standards. One only need look in her direction for the true meaning of success and superiority, both for education and for our own personal lives. -Mr. Sharpe

Mr. Mewhiney has been an inspirational influence on countless students, teachers, coaches, parents, and administrators. On a daily basis he demonstrated professionalism, loyalty, honesty, integrity, and enthusiasm to all of us at WHS. -Dr. Zolubos

Miss Drisko gave many years to this school. She taught a Sports Nutrition class, a course which she created. She was a fine mentor, showing me the ropes and explaining the procedures of my "new" school. -Mrs. Brown



Mr. Markvenas has been a pillar of the Science Department for a number of years and is responsible for directing a number of young people into scientific and engineering careers.

-Mrs. George

Mr. Kasierski was well loved and respected during many years at WHS. He inspired many young people to follow a scientific career.

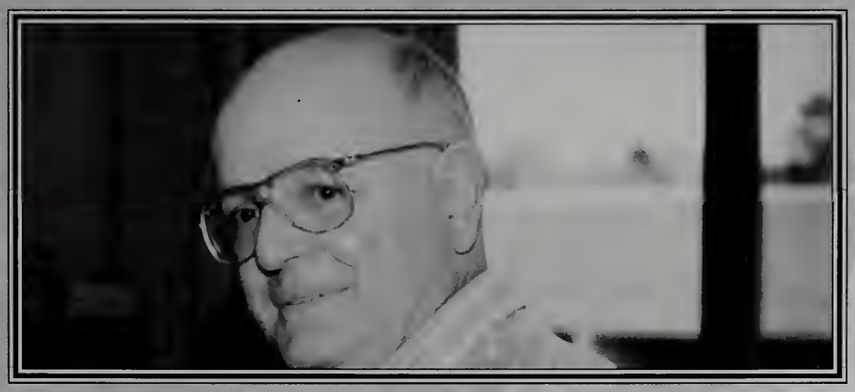
-Mrs. George

The greatest privilage of attending WHS is not the athletic program, the cafeteria food, the updated technology, the music department, or even the diversity of courses offered. The single greatest benefit of being a student at WHS is the high level of commitment by the faculty. Teachers are approachable, dedicated, and concerned. They are not mere machines spitting out bare information, but are truly interested in teaching us how to learn. They do not wish for us to seek only the short-term goal of a good report card, but wish to prepare us academically and socially for our lives beyond high school.

Mr. Gravel, Ms. Spinney, Mr Markvenas,Mr. Mewhiney, Ms. Drisko, Mr. Ballard, Mr. Kasierski, and Mr. Ottoson loyally served the Westborough community and the school system. Each faculty member added unique gifts to the school, and helped to shape the minds of hundreds of students. On behalf of the student body I would like to thank these faculty members for dedicating years of their lives for our education. Thank you.

-Emily Munro '00

We all wish Phil Ballard the best of health and happiness in his retirement. With more than thirty fine years of service to the Westboro public schools, he has earned our thanks and admiration. As a colleague and friend, I will miss him. -Ms. McManus



Mr. Ottoson and I were next door neighbors on the 3rd floor of WHS for 30 years. We usually got to school early in the morning before students arrived, had coffee, discussed the news of the day, and sometimes argued over politics. We developed a close relationship and I miss my morning discussion with Mr. "O." -Mr. Reno

After a disappointing end to the 1998 season, we faced adversity coming into the '99 season. Those opinions were soon to be changed and expectations raised before the start of the season. With the return of many experienced players, and the smarts of coach Greg Allen, the sun was starting to shine through.

With a great opening of the season we tied Division I State Finalists Milford, and tied district finalist Nashoba. We were overwhelmed by a sense of confidence that enabled us to finish out the season well above .500 and qualify for districts with two games to spare. It was an exciting and successful season, and we feel that we will be remembered from years to come. Thank you for a great season.

Thanks to the killer pack, the girls cross country team had a great season. We placed second in the league after a tight race with Nashoba. Despite injuries and sickness, our unity brought us to the top. We had a lot of fun maintaining our status of the "most spirited" team. Thanks you guys. It was an honor being your captains. Run.

- Aislinn Martin '01, Karen Glatfelter '01, Christy Goggin '00

The 1999 mens cross country season can be summed up with three distinct words: "Determination wins over." Despite numerous injuries, this years team lived up to the expectations of the captains and the coach. The most notable victory was at Algonquin. The team placed 5th in the league meet and sent several runners to the district meet. The 1999 XC team had an outstanding season and looks forward to a successful season in 2000.

This years team was full of new faces, with only three returning seniors. We were up for a challenge from the very beginning of the season.

Our team was led by setters Jess Shay and Kristen Goede, middle hitters Michelle Kender and Jill Bergeron, and ourtside hitters Vicki Cantwell and Caitlin Stazinski. Also adding to our awesome line up was Barbara Kotler, and Katy Sherman who were defense specialists and serving machines.

With the help of our amazing coaches Mr. Anderson, Mr. Cantwell, Coach Jeff and Coach B we were able to pull 9 individuals together into a fantastic team that managed to win the Leauge Championship for the second year in a row. We had three leauge all stars and the Leauge MVP, that helped contribute to our sucessful second season. We wish next year's team all the best.

The 1999 football season began with a hope to successfully seceed the 1998 Superbowl season. A positive attitude was upheld at the beginning of the season, and led us to a good start, 4-2, with our only loses coming from two champion Mid-Wach teams.

At Oakmont, the Rangers suffered a heavy loss. Westboro was able to come from behind after a twenty point deficit, but was unable to win the game. This disapointment, unfortunately, was carried through the rest of the season, leaving us with a 4-7 record.

The 1999 Westboro Ranger Football team would like to thank our families, our fans, the cheerleaders, and the marching band for their effort and support throughout our season. Their enthusiasm and encouragment meant a lot to the players.

Do It 4 The Monkey!!

This year the Varsity Gymnastics team is comprised of nine very energetic members. The team has been off to a great start this year, opening 3-0. We've shared laughs through spray painting banners (with the whole laundramat watching), tye dying tee-shirts, sharing floor routines, and nicknames (i.e. White Rabbit, A&F Girl, Legs, Smiley, Mouse, Beauty Queen, M&M, Willy and Lil'1.) The team mantra, Do It 4 the Monkey!, is to commemorate our dearly departed mascott, Westie. Good luck guys...and maybe soon we will MEET VIRGINIA!! Morgan~There is life beyond your mat! Laura~Gettin' guys at Heberts! Chrissy & Elyssa ~Calypso Crazy! Dani~Coach and savior, thanks! Marta~Think handsprings! Sara~No frog-ups! Jenna~ Someone else needs straddlebacks!!

We Like To Show Our Spirit!!

The season began as soon as summer vacation started. The team held practices every week and together they attended a camp at Holy Cross. Camp was a great place for the upperclassmen and freshman to get to know each other as we learned our new routines. The football team had their share of ups and downs, but we always tried to stay postive and give it our all. The basketball season started abruptly, with a new team and a new coach. The experienced girls helped the new girls learn everything, and eventually the girls looked like they'd been cheering for years. Good luck to everyone next year!!!

"We Do More Before 6 AM than most people do all day." Cheesy yes we know, but it's the truth. This year Westborough's one, and not to mention only, swim team weathered more than the occasional snow storms. With a 5-5 and 1 record, one of the smallest teams in the league (with only 20 kids), and 5 AM practices everyday its a wonder that our very groovy (and a bit crazy) coach Bethany Bergmann wasn't thrown in the pool more than once this year. Getting the team to experience some sort of togetherness was difficult for us considering that the odds of everyone being awake and fully functioning at 5 in the morning is pretty slim to none... Although the cheery e-mails from Bethany saying "See you in the AM" and bribery through "Smile Bucks" were a tiny bit hard to handle at first, the swim team prevailed tremendously, finding more ways than one to jump into that freezing cold water every morning. How does one sum up such a great season... simply by saying... Wet Noodles, Towel Snapping, and Speedos... What more could YOU ask for??

This year Varsity Basketball season was a story of potential and "tough luck". At the start of the season expectations were high. Three of the five starters were returning, but the game schedule looked challenging. Our team was brought out of town just about every Friday night this season to face our rivals. Though the team finished the season with 4 wins and 13 losses, there were several games lost by as few as one or two points. The papers named our team "Tough Luck Westborough". Thanks to our coaches for a great winter!

To the Finish Line

Despite a lack of attendance on the part of the freshman, our season was relatively successful. The girls managed to uphold our 3 year losing streak! Thanks to all of you that came to practice. It was much appreciated. The hard work paid off; quite a few records were tied, approached, and broken this year. We look foward to another great season next winter!

The Westborough Ranger Hockey team, led by captains John Kemble and Jeff Lemery, had a fantastic season. The captains, aided by assistant captains Mark Ruane and Joe Sanginario, brought the team onto the ice in style. Each teammate contributed to the season in his own way. Mark Ruane and Kevin Moynihan skated with grace, while Doug Mayne was the fastest and strongest player in Westborough history. John Kemble led the way with his two time Boroughs Cup, and made the All Tournament team. Breaking Barriers

Up, up, and away went multiple records, especially in the pole vault. Both the guys and girls set new heights for upcoming competitors. Greg Pratt broke the pole vault record with a 13'5 1/2" jump. Danielle Lupien jumped a 10' 6" jump raising the standard for Girls Track. Emily Munro also rebroke the schools 2 mile record with an impressive 12:06! League All-Stars included: Ashley Hayden, Katherine Ryan, Carrie Walters, Emily Munro, Liz Lucas, Pat Bready, Josh Paquette, Greg Pratt, Casey Banks, Ron Waddell, Brad Wagner, and Jeremy Nute. Each individual added to the many victories wonin the 1999 season. Each distance runner, sprinter, thrower, and jumper fought for their personal records in their specified events. Battling the brisk winds of the early season and the blazing heat of the early summer we fought to improve form, and beat times and heights. Under the guidance of Rick Herbert, "Doug," Mike Anderson, Mike Ellis, Mary Ryan, and Frank O'Brien, the Westborough Track Teams finished with an impressive 7-0 (Boys) and 6-2 (Girls) records!

At the start of the 1999 Baseball season, many believed that the varsity team would not meet the standards previous teams had set. The team had only five returning seniors, yet each senior portrayed great leadership. These seniors set thier minds on winning the Ashland Tournamet, making it to Districts, and winning the division title. We worked hard and accomplished many of the goals set before us. At the close of the 1999 Lacrosse season, not only had the tradition begun, it had soared. What started out as a scruffy group of beginners turned into a cohesive unit of blossoming players. Despite the fact that no real varisty games were played, a solid foundation was laid through numerous scrimmages with equally developed (or lack there of) programs. We might not be the most skilled group of girls ever to play the sport, but boy did we have fun. We'd like to thank both Coach Rota and Coach Calander for their patience, time and effort in teaching us a new sport. A special thanks goes out to Mrs. Dudley and Mrs. Beck for their commitment and expertise. Hopefully, in the future, our popularity and success will continue to grow. Chicks 'n' sticks forever!

The Love

The 1999 season presented itself with a strong team with nine of the fourteen members being juniors. Our first few games were away, so we quickly grew stronger and closer as a team. The days when our hands froze around the grips of our rackets became fewer. Before we knew it we were sporting our new tank tops in stifling hot weather. We had a lot of team spirit and didn't need to hang up a flag to prove it. Thanks to the whole team and Coach Mathieu for a great season.

Improv Salsa Shark ~ Brian Higgins

Centerstage, for those of you who are left out in the cold, is the organization at WHS which provides a sturdy home for the theatrically-inclined. It's clear that Anything Goes in this group of widely-essentric and fun-loving individuals whose voice in the student body is used mainly for "MAAAA"ing and begging random, unsuspecting classmates to join our infamous Improv troupe. It's no secret that, only a real Good Doctor could repair the disarray left by the mysterious Tom Alera. But we'll continue to smile and act and dance and sing through it all. Thank you for reading this page. "If you ever pass this way again, I hope you inherit five million rubles."

IMPROV TROUPE

WHAT IS IMPROV?

"Improv is a Centerstage function that meets every Friday after school in the auditorium. We play improv games such as those on ABC's Whose Line Is It Anyway? To become involved in Improv, you do NOT need to be a Centerstage member, nor do you need to have any experience in improv. You don't even need to be funny. All you need to do is show up and have a good time. No commitment is necessary to be involved. It is strictly voluntary. But please try to regularly attend to maximize the fun potential. Near the end of the year, auditions are held for the Improv Troupe, the group that puts on the annual improv show. It is not necessary to have gone to Improv prior to trying out for the troupe, but it is recommended to help you to hone your improv skills. Meander over to the Centerstage board and see our amusing little posters which will tell you if Improv will be held on a particular week. So if you're looking for something fun to do on a Friday afternoon, come to Improv from 2:15 to 4:00. Hope to see you there!"

Madrigal Singers

Like many of us, I had several doubts at the beginning of this year. With the exception of our all-talented, 2nd-year madrigal singers, Caroline Barnes and Katherine Deakin, we were all new: 14 sophomores, juniors, and seniors attempting to hold the torch of excellence passed down to us from the Class of 1999. Needless to say, due widely to the unbounded enthusiasm of our most bubbly director, Mr. P., our year together started off wonderfully smooth. We've since enjoyed the heavenly and eloquent melodies of Italian & French madrigals, some of which contain colloquial and bawdy lyrics which are best left un-translated. I'll always hear the daily renditions (in harmony) of "Happy Birthday, Simon" echoing in the back of my mind. I love you all and always remember... "Everyone in this room is a...."

Concert Choir

The concert choir has left us all with fond memories of Jayme Rubenstein pretending to be Jennifer Lopez on the bus; bowed sleeves on hideous fucsia dresses; wondering who kidnapped the "Lucky Duck"; singing in every language but English; the Vivaldi Concerts that never ended; bomb threats at competitions; and Mr. P. pretending to be an aerobics instructor yelling "Rib, Cage, High." The concert choir has never failed to bring us smile and laughter. Its been fun!

Choral Ensemble

Girls Choral Ensemble is an awesome class. Being an all women chorus It is a unique experience in that we have the opportunity to bond together as a group of girls. We are able to talk openly about anything, unlike many other classes where you feel like you must put on a show. Not all of our time is spent talking though. The music selections this year have challenged us to train our voice boxes and our ears to create the best possible sound as a whole. Though many of the song lyrics are in foreign languages, we have learned to express the tone and passion of the song in our voices. Under the expertise of Mr. Seaman we have grown individually and as a group. Mr. Seaman teaches in a free style that creates a fun environment; the work is hard, but nobody complains.

Mixed Chorus was a huge group this year and has always been, as far as I can remember.The group's size has always been both an assest and a challenge. The chorus is headed by the well esteemed David Seaman who conducts passionately and has great knowledge of his work. He has an amiable and at times demanding character which well equips him for the task of harnessing a body of around 130 energized high schoolers. The people who take Mixed Chorus have always seemed to be light hearted enough for a jovial environment yet also generally understand the necessity for work. During my four years I have always appreciated the easy going and liberal humor fostered by our group. We have always been thankful for the leeway we have been afforded from which we have taken many humorous and serious memories. The jokes, stories, and overall life insight has made mix chorus a truly profitable experience.

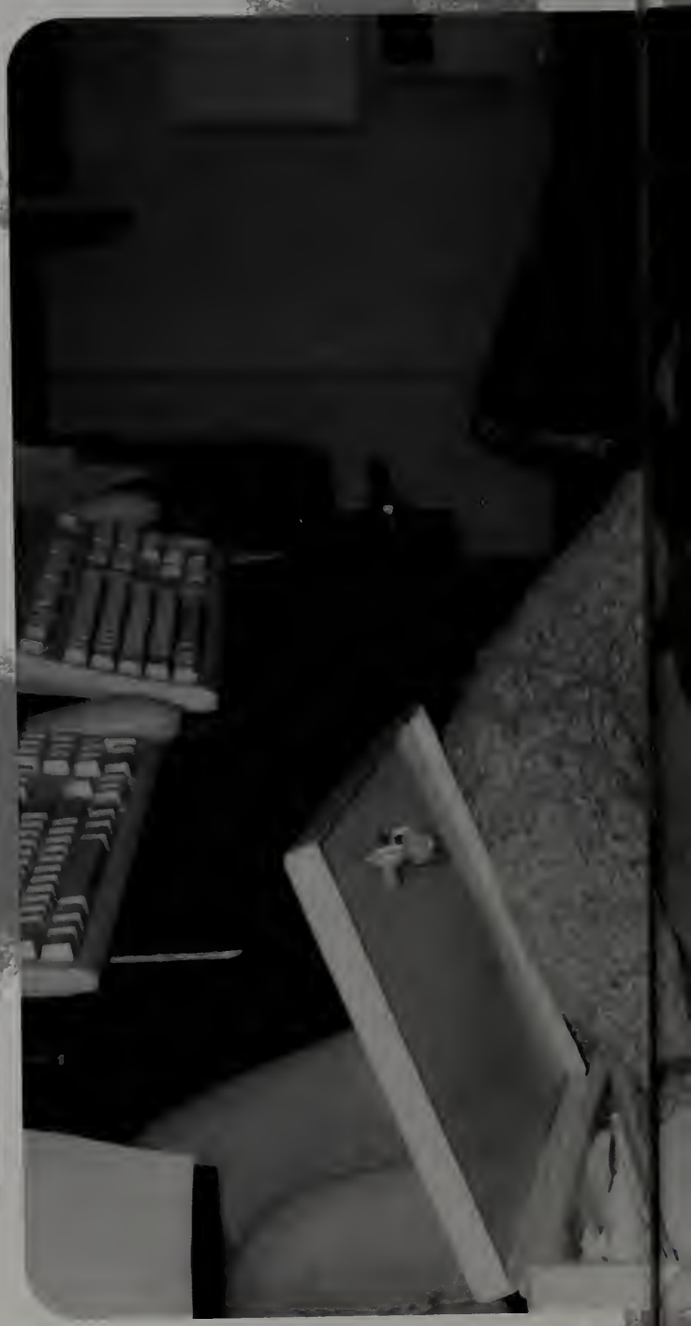
Activities



"There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven."

Student Council

"There's a student council in our school?" That is the question that many students at WHS have had in past years. But not this year. Under the leadership of President Jenna Sunkenberg, Vice President Emily Munro, Treasurer Alfred Byun, and Secretary Meg Kayser we have undergone a year of progress and change. Beginning with virtually nothing we set guidelines for the councils to come. After many brainstorming sessions and bonding times we established our vision, and set out to reach it. Thank you Mrs. Potosnak for advising, and Mr. Kane for helping us through this transitional year.

The Peer Leadership group is now in its fifth year, and is really starting to establish itself as a group in the school. As a group we've accomplished many of the goals that we have set for ourselves. Our many projects range from suicide prevention, helping people quit smoking, and showing new students around the school. As a group we have set goals for ourselves to reach, and those are to spread knowledge, to be a bridge between the students and faculty, and to help create a safer and more knowledgeable environment for our peers emotionally and physically. We as a group hope to help people become aware of what is occuring in the world around them, and to think about the many consequences that their actions may take. So if there is one main message we send out as a group, that is that it only takes one person to speak up and help to make a huge difference.

....and the young'ens

It's all about giving up our own desires in order to meet the needs of others. With our red folders and tye-dye t-shirts we united from the start and used our resources and abilities to meet the standards set before us. This year we have worked as a group to reach out to the community through tutoring, giving music lessons, collecting childrens books, and selling daffodils for the American Cancer Society. We've supplied sugar for our fellow students with our candy cart and tickets for football and basketball games, which in turn provides them with college scholarships. Under our fearless advisor Mr. Vital we have worked to live up to and beyond the National Honor Society expectations of service, leadership, scholarship, and character.

Environmental Club

The Environmental Club has had many accomplishments in its first two years at WHS. The club meets weekly and is responsible for the recycling of cans and bottles in the school. One of the main events held by the club is Environmental Week. This includes a school cleanup,the pin contest, an assembly with a guest speaker, and bag crocheting. The Environmetal Club members have also attended conferences, worked with vernal pools and hopes to do more for the Westboro community.

Math Team

The Westborough High School math team is the unique group of individuals who actually enjoy being challenged by mathematics. About every two months these students arm themselves with pencils, erasers, and their trusty graphing calculators and head out for a night of number crunching. The math meets are packed with intense action, and the team round gives us a chance to put our minds together with one purpose: Solve. Led by the wisdom of Mr. Lightbody the math team has gained much knowledge and experience in solving quadratic equations, finding derivatives, and calculating areas. This year we were very successful in competition, placing high in the standings. Our secret? Those chocolate chip cookies and the slushy juice. -The Math Team

THE LOBBY OBSERVER

Each and every week, the nine members of the Lobby Observer work productively to publish the school newspaper. Working diligently, we try excessively hard to meet the likes of all the students and the faculty. Furthermore, in our attempt to completely satisfy the readers, we are looking to improve the paper and further meet the readers' interests.

As a staff, the Lobby-O would like to create a dialogue between the students and the faculty. We feel that this will further unite the members of the school and improve the content of the paper. This should be accomplished by writing articles that reach everyone. The Lobby-O staff would like to enforce the idea that we openly accept everyone's opinion and their suggestions.

Opinions and letters can be placed in the "Lobby-O Suggestion" folder located just outside room 331. Please give us your ideas!

Yearbook Fun

I know why I've been doing this yearbook thing for soooo long. It has something to do with the "verities" of the human heart to which William Faulkner alludes. Yes, I know this is not an economically deprived area, but we're talking about the human heart and spirit and the stubborn perserverance of good people doing a good task. This is what I stick around for: the renewal of faith that there are strong and determined young people ready to stay long hours and layout and design, edit and redo, decorate and clean-up, and put up with unreasonable deadlines.
So, I say thanks to all and, in particular: Emily, Sarah, Ariel, Erin, and Meg.

Piglet sidled up behind Pooh.
"Pooh," he whispered.
"Yes, Piglet?"
"Nothing," said Piglet, taking Pooh's paw.
"I just wanted to be sure of you."
Dearest Erin,

You can always be sure!

The more I look back on all the happy times
The easier it is for me to realize
That friends are much more than hellos & goodbyes
It all comes down to what you have inside.

Nicole ~ i dedicated this song to you 11 years ago. Since then everytime we've heard it, it's made us cry. Somehow i never thought this day would be here so quickly. The day when you would leave my side to go build your own life. You are my daughter, my friend, my laughter, my tears. But above all else you've been my incredible source of happiness. i love you, i'm proud of you. I'll miss you and most of all i believe in you. With all my love . . . mom xx

Forever Young

May the good lord be with you down every road you roam
And may Sunshine and happiness
Surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud, dignified and true
And do unto others as you would have done to you
Be courageous and be Brave and in my heart
You will remain forever Young
Forever Young
Forever Young
May good fortune be with you may your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven with a Prince or a Vagabond
And may you never love in Vain
And in my heart you will remain forever Young
Forever Young
Forever Young
And when you finally fly away i'll be hoping that i Served you well for all the wisdom of a lifetime no one can ever tell
But whatever road you choose i'm right behind you win or lose forever Young
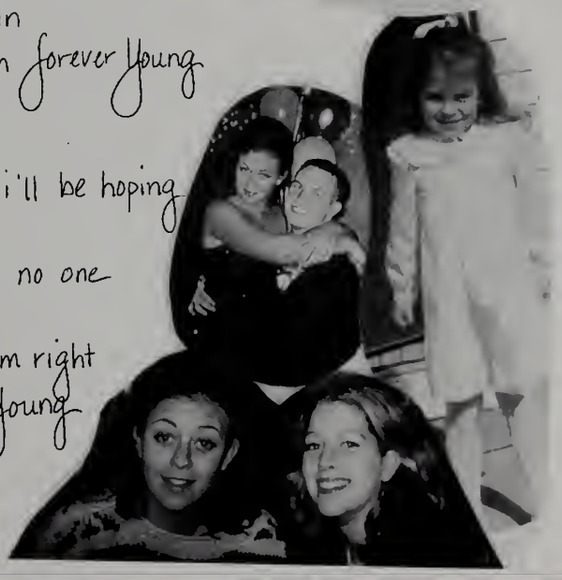
Forever Young
Forever Young.



Wishing you the best!

Editors

General Editors

"Whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him." This yearbook has most certainly constituted as the "whatever" in both word and deed. The words on these pages typed, edited, and re-edited, as well as those spoken in encouragement and instuction have been spoken and written unto the Lord. When asked to take the position of yearbook editor I must say that I was excited, but had no idea what I was getting myself into. Mr. Kaplan will always remind me that he was not the only one that pressured me to take on the job. I knew that it would be a challenging experience, and that was before I understood what a deadline entailed. Late nights and early mornings were spent in room 301, otherwise known as my second home.

Mr. Kaplan and Sarah...how you have put up with my lack of computer skills and general yearbook knowledge is beyond me. All my thanks to Claire, Christy, Christopher, and everyone else that provided prayer and support during my senior year. Mom and Dad- there are no words to express the gratitude that I have for you. I love you forever. Above all else I want to thank my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for the strength to accomplish this otherwise impossible feat.

Under His mercy,
Emily

I can still remember the day at the end of my freshman year that I was asked to be on the yearbook staff, I was so excited and three years later here I am. What a trip...it's been long and hard, but worth all of the stress and aggrivation. I still can't believe that it's all done. We' ve worked so hard and I'm proud to say that everything looks fabulous!

Before I go I'd like to thank all of the people that have helped me through such a stressful time. First and foremost I would like to thank Emily my co-editor, what would I have done without you. All those late nights just wouldn't have been the same. Mr. Kaplan you've been great! Thanks for dealing with my stress attacks and giving me a chance. Thank you Erin and Ariel for doing such a great job on the Holiday Ball, and all the ads. Thank you Meg, without you the book would be filled with copy and white space. I also want to thank the staff for working so hard to meet all those tight deadlines right up until the end.

Finally, I want to thank my friends and family for putting up with my spaz attacks around deadline time...you guys have been wonderful!! Good Luck to the Class of 2000... I'm sure everything will turn out for the best.

Love,
Sarah

Once upon a time, in the Magical Kingdom of Westborough High School, King Kaplan ruled over the chaotic County of Yearbook. Now, the County of Yearbook required many, many many pictures to be taken, and so he sent for an unsuspecting peasant girl, Megan, to do the task. She happily obliged, thinking that joining the royal court in the County of Yearbook in the Magical Kngdom would be a fun and rather simple task. She was sorely mistaken though as the County of Yearbook faced such dread enemies as deadlines, lost pictures and rebellions within the land. How could Megan take all these pictures for the people and have them developed in time? Her knight in shining armor rode in just in time. It was Sir One Hour Photo from the neighboring County of CVS. In the end, deadlines were met, executions were stayed, and all lived happily ever after.

Even though the position as Court Photo Editor was more than I'd expected, it turned out to be a wonderful experience. I'd like to thank everyone who helped keep me sane by being patient, because " I promise, the pictures are coming." Special thanks go to Mr. Kaplan, Erin, Steph, Emily and all the other editors and staff. Good Luck to the Class of 2000 and to next years yearbook staff!

Love, Meg

Business Editors

Being the Business Editors of the Yearbook has been a stressful, but great experience. Between preparing for the Holiday Ball and working on what seemed like a million ads, there were many hours and much hardwork.

We never thought being in charge of the ads would be as overwhelming as it was. It took hours with parents to let them know all the information about the ads and to make them as special as they turned out to be.

The four months of planning for the Holiday Ball paid off. It was a huge success. The lobby was completely transformed and it was a magical evening. We cannot thank Mrs. Plante enough for all her time and hard work. We also want to thank Mr. Kaplan, Mr. Masciarelli and the yearbook staff for helping out.

Mr. Kaplan- what can we say? It has been an amazing experience being a part of the yearbook staff for three years. This year we both took on much more responsibility being editors. We could not have made it this far without all you've done for us. We can't thank you enough! It's been tough at times, but we wouldn't have traded these three years in Yearbook Class for anything. Special thanks to Em, Sarah and Meg, who worked hard to make this yearbook a complete success!

Love, Ariel and Erin

Thank You!

First and foremost to Mr. Kaplan! Your commitment, patience, and ability to work with a room full of teenage girls (and two boys) is amazing. This book would not have happened without you.

To the entire student body for providing the pictures that make up the book.

Esteban Arguello for designing the Bubbly cover.

All the Janitors of WHS who put up with the late nights, and the mess we always seemed to make.

Mr. Hayes for providing art supplies at any time of the day.

Claire and Adam for providing food, support, food, encouragement, and food to your older sisters in the midst of their editing furry.

Mike Heagarty for all the soda runs, the typing, and the laughs.

Paul and Donna Munro for supplying not only emotional support, but also for artwork, typing, and late nights in room 301.

Mr. Masciarelli for all your computer help with networking, frozen screens, and the installation of the new iMacs.

CVS One hour photo for always being open to develop film just hours before a deadline!

The entire yearbook staff for your dedication to the end in making this book what it is.

Meg Kayser for taking on the the entire burden of photo editor and doing a fantastic job.

Erin, Ariel, Mrs. Silvestry, Mrs. Hagens, and all those who made the Holiday Ball a wonderful time for all.

Thanks Mom and Dad for the encouragment, support, and love.

Thank You to all that we failed to mention. Every picture taken and every copy written is very much appreciated.

Let this book capture a wonderful year of high school!
